THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY CHARGES THAT:

COUNT 1

(Trafficking in Counterfeit Goods)

Between on or about May 1, 2010 and July 19, 2011, in the State and District of Minnesota, the defendant,

MARIO SAMSON

did intentionally traffic and attempt to traffic in goods, specifically cellular telephones and cellular telephone accessories, while knowingly using on and in connection with such goods counterfeit marks, to wit, spurious marks identical to and substantially indistinguishable from the Dataflow Emblem Design, and others, owned by Research in Motion Limited, marks that were in use and registered for those goods on the principal register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the use of which counterfeit marks were likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake, and to deceive, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2320(a).

Forfeiture Allegations

Count 1 of this Information is hereby realleged and incorporated as if fully set forth herein by reference, for the purpose of alleging forfeitures pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 2323(b).

As the result of the offenses alleged in Count 1 of this Information, the defendant shall forfeit to the United States pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 2323:

- a. Any article, the making or trafficking of which is prohibited under section 506 of Title 17, United States Code, or section 2318, 2319, 2319A, 2319B, or 2320, or chapter 90, of Title 18, United States Code;
- b. Any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit or facilitate the commission of any offense referred to in subparagraph a; and
- c. Any property constituting or derived from any proceeds obtained directly or indirectly as a result of the commission of any offense referred to in subparagraph a.

If any of the above-described forfeitable property is unavailable for forfeiture, the United States intends to seek the forfeiture of substitute property as provided for in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), as incorporated by Title 18, United States Code, Section 2323(b)(2).

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2320 and 2323.
